

Story outline

Title

Lost lover novel

Genre

Romance/ Emotional drama/ Tragedy

Core premise

A young man, who once had nothing, unexpectedly finds the love of his life at his lowest point. But just as he begun to rebuild the world around her, she disapers when he needed her the most, forcing him into a painful journey of love, loss, and self-discovery.

Themes

- Love found unexpectedly.
- The pain of losing your world(a lover).
- What we remember Vs what is true.
- Emotional dependancies and real attachments.
- The search of love in uncertainties.
- Growth out of realization.
- Hope is everything.
- Zero becomes lazy and one is never enough.

Story outline

Act 1: The empty life

After finishing school, Daev moves to a rapidly growing town called Necta. He starts his new life there with almost nothing. Life in Necta is difficult, filled with poverty, unemployment, theft, corruption, and constant struggles, but Daev refuses to give up.

As time passes, he begins to feel a deep emotional emptiness growing inside him. Despite the warmth of the people around him, he feels isolated. At times, he is tempted to escape his pain through drugs, but something inside him continue to resist.